

IU Chat Application Examples

Login/Registration Screen appears when program is ran.

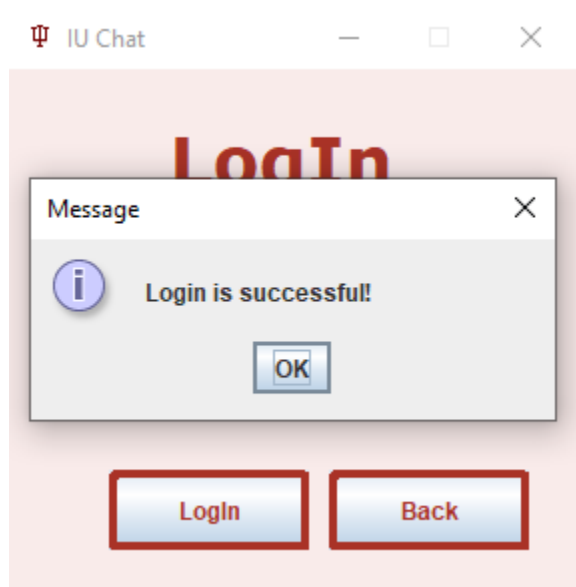

If register button is clicked user is sent to registration screen. Back button returns user to previous screen.

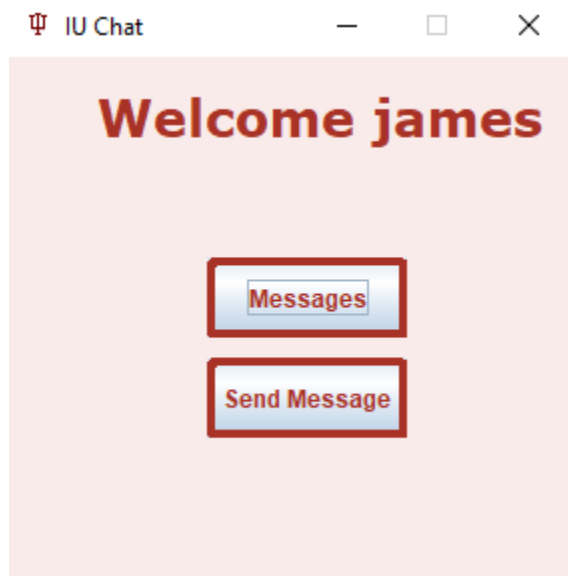

User enters information and clicks register and receives success message.

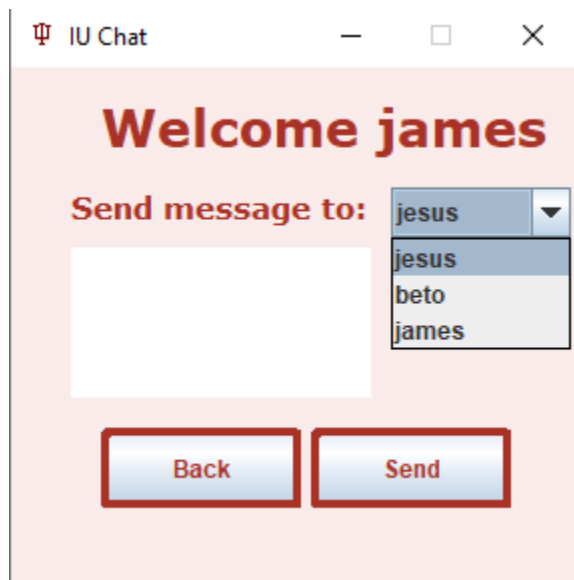

User at login screen keys in the correct information.

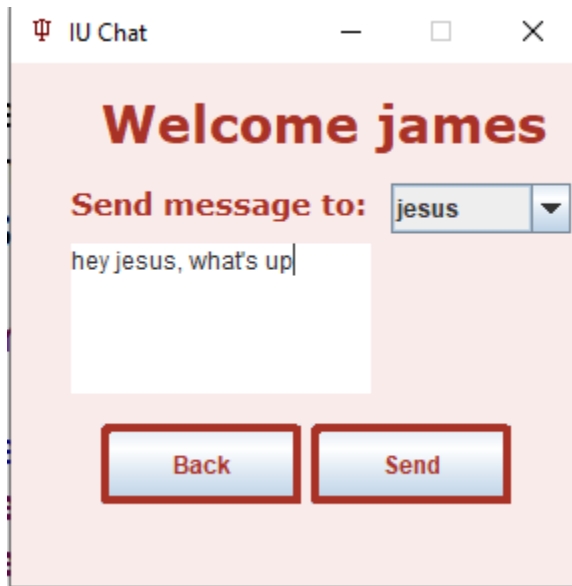

Welcome screen when a user is logged in.

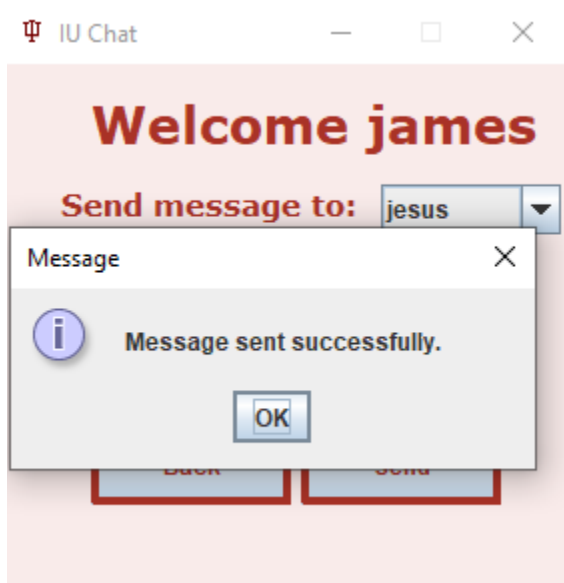

Drop down box displaying all other users currently registered.

What appears when the user tries to send a message to another user.

Message successfully sent.

What the user sees when they click “messages” from the Welcome screen. Tells the user who sent the message, what the message contained, and the date.

